BEST PRACTICE

1. Anand Social Centre (ASC)

Objective of the Practice

- To create social consciousness among students, about social, culture, economical, political and gender equity.
- To impart value based education among the students.
- To give a platform for generating civic responsibility and leadership development in building up national integrity.
- To train the students for event management and social outlook for the welfare of community.

2. Need Addressed and the Context

Our college is located in the rural area of Sahyadri ranges of Ahmednagar district. People of this area mainly depend upon seasonal agriculture. There are many areas of community needs where the participation of students is necessary. These services are in conformity with the aims and objectives of the institution.

3. The Practice

The college has adopted to cater services to 'Anand bhakta' and 'Mohatadevi bhakta'. The college has selected locality as a college campus and Chichodigaon, a birth place of Anand rushiji Maharaj sab.

The college is celebrating Anand Mahotsava as a community festival for all Anand bhakta. Such festival provides a platform for student to bring out their leadership and managerial skills. The students and faculties are actively involved in rally, pathanaty, dhol pathak and dindi etc which gives message to society about national integration. ASC is an event helping for interpersonal relationship among students and society. The 'Mahaprasad' or the catering of food to all bhakta is a very best experience for the students to learn social responsibility, discipline, and division of labour and development of various skills.

4. Evidence of Success

Anand Social Center has received wide appreciation from students, parent, society and the media. This activity was arranged by student under the guidance of faculty. So such platform provided them a good experience of group activity. It also helped for motivating their skills like leadership development. Such programmes motivated the students to participate in other social outreach programmes where they work with the under privileged section of society.

5. Resources

The resources to celebrate these festivals are generated by the social donors in the form of offering Mahaprasad. The students and faculty of college offers breakfast to Mohatadevi bhakta every year. The staff, students alumni and management have always been generous enough to lend their support for such activities.

Annexure-V

Best Practice

2. Activities for Overall development of girl students

1. Objective of the Practice

- To conduct various activities for girl students for more capable to face the challenges of the competitive world.
- To provide extended facilities to girls for all-round development.
- To arouse social consciousness among girls to apply their educational principles to concrete social issues.
- To educate about health, nutrition and hygiene for better quality life.

2. Need Addressed and the Context

Shri Anand college is located in the rural area. Most of people are not conscious about girl's higher education. There is needed to make girls aware about their education rights and try to create self-reliance to live bravely and courageously in the society. Many girls are unconscious about their health; even they don't share it with their parents. So it is needed to do better efforts for overall development of girl students.

3. The Practice

The college has been conducting special activities to make girl students more capable, to achieve academic excellence and successfully face the challenges of the competitive world. Especially, girl belonging to weaker sections in society are given preference in Earn and Learn scheme. Vidyarthini Manch (Girl Students' Association) is specially established to uphold the value of women equality on the college campus. To improve the confidence level among the girl students, the association organises various competitions like Rangoli, Mehendi, Easy Writing, Debating and Elocution. The mother parent meet is arranged to discuss various activities carried out by the college for overall development of the girl students. Our college is organizing Yoga and Meditation Workshop for girl students.

4. Evidence of Success

Special activities for girls helped them to fight against social evils like female feticide, dowry practice and sexual discrimination assault etc. Girls are motivating to others for self-defence by arranging lectures, demonstration of Judo Karate. Moreover, theme-based cultural programmes have helped to implant the basic values in the girl students. It is observed in many programmes that girl students are discussing to fight against the domestic violence and injustice.

5. Resources

The resources to organize such program are help is generated by the staff and students. S P Pune University has provided financial assistance for conducting workshops.
